USAGing

...is your national association

USAGing exists to support your critical local efforts on behalf of older adults, people with disabilities and caregivers. We do this by offering an array of technical assistance, training, resources, advocacy, discounts and other benefits—all customized for Area Agencies on Aging and Title VI Native American Aging Programs, something no other organization can offer.

Your National Advocate and Champion

Public Policy and Advocacy
USAging provides members with a national voice, federal representation and advocacy, and a powerful grassroots network vital to ensuring a national impact. USAging’s members receive information and training on aging and home and community-based services, policy issues, including legislative analysis of federal policy, advocacy tools and timely calls to action.

Visibility and Leadership
Our publications and media outreach raise the recognition and visibility of our members and the work they do to support older adults, people with disabilities and caregivers, while our staff help position the Aging Network at the local, state and national levels.

Offering Critical Training and Resources
The Answers on Aging™ members-only newsletter provides information on emerging trends, new resources, weekly notification of funding opportunities and other news you need to know.

The members-only USAging Boot Camp for New Directors offers training for new AAA and Title VI program directors, helping to facilitate learning about federal programs, agency operations and best practices from the field and to offer peer networking.

USAging University provides members with discounted pricing on a validated, skill-based curriculum that USAging has customized to strengthen the knowledge of AAA and Title VI staff.

USAging’s Consulting Services offer a team of consultants with Aging Network expertise to help members navigate strategy, capacity and management needs related to health care, other business partnerships and agency operations.

The Aging Innovations and Achievement Awards program annually recognizes replicable, innovative and successful AAA and Title VI programs that drive excellence in operations and programming to benefit older adults and their caregivers.

USAging’s Preferred Providers offer discounts on services USAging members use every day. Visit usaging.org to find the current list of Preferred Providers and start saving money.

Providing Opportunities to Participate in Cutting-Edge Events

Annual Conference and Tradeshow
July 16–19, 2023, Salt Lake City, UT
and July 7–10, 2024, Tampa, FL
Every year, more than 1,000 national and local aging leaders, decision-makers and business executives attend the USAging Annual Conference and Tradeshow, making it the largest gathering of local aging industry professionals in the U.S. USAging members save money with discounted rates!

Aging Policy Briefing & Capitol Hill Day
April 25–26, 2023, Washington, DC
Our annual Aging Policy Briefing is the only national event focused on federal policy from the AAA perspective. It’s rich in educational content and up-to-the-minute policy news to get you up to speed on the latest legislative and policy issues before going to Capitol Hill to advocate for older adults and caregivers in your community! USAging members qualify for discounted registration.

Leadership Institute
Fall 2023, Washington, DC
The Aging Network is evolving and needs strong leaders to seize opportunities and face challenges head-on. Take your leadership skills to a higher level by participating in USAging’s members-only leadership development program in the company of your AAA and Title VI colleagues.
